THOMAS P. BARTON

And if the band you're in starts playing different tunes, I'll see you on the dark side of the moon.

WILLIAM T. BERMINGHAM

THE PARENTS

BILL, YOU'RE THE BEST.

HANGING IN THERE

Look to this day!

For it is life, the very life of life.

In its brief courses lie all the verities and realities of your existence!

The bliss of growth!

The glory of Action!
For Yesterday is a dream, and tomorrow only a vision.
But today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!

Such the salutation of the dawn.

And if the cloud bursts thunder in your ear,
You shout and no one seems to hear,
And if the band you're in starts playing different tunes,
I'll see you on the Mark Side

— Roy Watters Pink Floyd

"NIC"

There is no Dark Side of the Moon, really. As a matter of fact, it's all dark.

— Pink Floyd

Dunn, you have my eternal thanks. I hope that I will live life to its utmost, never being afraid to fail, and always willing to risk.

Senior Wills

- I, BILL BERMINGHAM, being of sound mind and small body will the following:
  - to the entire student body the hope that you all grow up short.
  - to Ray McFarland the hope that you may remove skin from your belly and fulfill your dream of an entire upper lip.
  - to Carl White I leave my room for you to continue to clean next year and future seniors to thrash upon your body, and, yes, you can have my E.T. finger. (Scrounge.)
  - to Toggie and Squire I leave a room inbetween two loud stereos, and thanks for being great neighbors.
  - to Stein just a reminder to keep in touch and that I won all the shaving cream fights.
  - to Jurgie Jr. I leave an invitation to a Jacuzzi party in Palm Springs.
  - to Marth a continuing friendship and, hopefully, happy Hawaii.
  - to Mr. Loy more of Ray's belly for your height and thanks for your being a good friend.
  - to my fellow Seniors the thanks for a good year and hope that we all get together again soon.
- and to those I left out, thanks for a good year and the best of luck next year. Get involved and play it smart. You'll never regret it.
- I, DAVID BOONE, being in sane state of mind (even after four years) leave the following:
  - to Jim Jurgensen I leave the ability to play a sound game of tennis after a rough night with "Fat Lips".
  - to Brett Baer a stamp and address so you can send me some "Famous Amos".
  - to Logan "Cutie" Mein I leave my catcher's spot and my skis.
  - to John Chase I leave the hope of not getting slashed and tripleteamed at midfield.
  - to Kevin "JV" Weinress I leave the ability to play at the third team level. (MO IM, MO PO, MO IN, etc...)
  - to Peter Robbins I leave high SAT's from the junior class.
  - to Chris "Stork" Courage I leave a set of strong legs and the ability to be as humble as I (Ha! Ha!). Thank you for listening to my problems and being a very close friend.
  - to Douglas Jessup I leave the memories of a smashed Rent-a-Car, broken glass, and a friendship which I hope will last forever.
  - to Ray and Bill I leave nothing because we, (three-kateers) have so much to look forward to in the future.
- to Bobbles I leave the memory of the Billy Martin-George Steinbrenner art. Keep in touch.
- I, BRUCE CHRISTIE, being of insane mind and, body, soul, and everything thereabouts, will the following items and thoughts to a few individuals:
- to Rat, my couch to watch TV with and something to rest your feet. Hope you survive Bob.
- to Ames a little less pain.
- to my nephew Maynard I give the powers of lightning in order to carry out its tradition on many a weary night wisely or not.
- to Kevin I leave Frog and the grace of the awesome double jump.
- to Bill I give many thanks for understanding and being there wishes to you and Diane.
- and to the School I leave my door to remember.
- to Wally there's not much to will to you. A new windshield would be nice, eh? Many more Jalama trips (a little earlier). Patience. And an immeasurable amount of gratitude, respect, and lasting friendship. Without you, Bro, the last would have been the worst.
- I, WILLIAM HUGH McGREGOR DONOHUGH, being of sound mind and body will the following things to these people:
- to Monty I will his freedom and my solemn thanks for putting up with me.
- to Dr. Jurgie the ability to get the job done and still have a good time doing it.
- to Chase my lacrosse stick.
- to Alan Ladd I leave my ability to look as if I am doing nothing when I am doing something.
- To William Brokaw I will the ability to take a quick shower.
- to Page I will a pack of Dexatrim Diet Pills.
- to Davis a set of weights, about the 12 ounce size.
- to Goren the determination to keep on going.
- to Baer, Hino, Drizin, Doyle, Wienress, and Conner my lifelong friendship.

- to Ettinger I leave the Annex and all within.
- to Dr. Wolfenden my old tests.
- to Wells the ability to lie his way out of everything and not get away with it.
- to Chris war is hell and I leave him a pack of water balloons.
- to Chris Ames I leave the custody of Logan and . . .
- to Logan I leave the custody of Chris.
- to Matt I leave my ideas of what life is really about.
- to Mailliard I leave the dent that he put in my car.
- to Todd I leave the responsibility of keeping track of his sister and still have a good time at doing it.
- to Ade and Landon the valley and I wish them my good luck in getting out of here.
- to Wendy and Marjory I leave my love and affection and the ability to stay a child as long as possible.
- to the rest of the girls including Tiffany I leave my lifelong friendship.
- to Doc I leave my ability to teach, and . . .
- the same to Yates, along with a lawn mower.
- to Robbins I leave the ability to make a mistake so that the Board and students realize what he has done.
- to Loy I leave my sympathy and compassion to live a full and happy life.
- to Moe the same as Loy.
- to Ms. Roome I leave a word processor program.
- to Mr. Courage my ability to argue so he can stand up for himself.
- to Amper I leave my sympathy and my Jurgensen's sign.
- to the School a tornado that will destroy it so that school is out for a couple of months early and so that they can collect on the insurance. The tornado should leave a book on how to build a better school.
- If I left out anything sorry.
- Sorry I forgot to leave Wendy my eight ball and Jurgensen and Wolfenden my PhD's.
- finally, my thanks to all for making my life better and making it easier to survive.
- I, JAMES FORD, being of aged mind, body, and soul, bequeath to a select few the following:
  - to Matt Smith the promise that some day you will be repaid the two cups of gas that drained your tank.
  - to Morrisey my deepest sympathy and the hope that some day you will devise a system by which you may entertain females in your room while simultaneously keeping faculty out. How about investing in a slide-bolt and a mattress for your closet?
  - to Fontana and Lester the memories of numerous hours listening to THE DEAD and one very aromatic telegram.
  - to Mr. McMichael the ability to distinguish cellulose from cleavage.
  - to Mr. Jessup my deepest thanks for trying so hard to be two things at once. You've inadvertantly taught me that respect for friends and for faculty may be one in the same.
  - to Woody the regrets that I never had you as a teacher, but only as someone to look up to and trust. You're one of the better ones.
  - to Jurgie my utmost respect and appreciation for being such a compassionate and admirable teacher, coach, and lender. I wish I could give you more, but I expect to be worthless and dependent for five more years.
  - and finally to Mr. Loy I somehow leave a part of myself. Besides being one of the most personable, conscientious, and caring people I've ever known, you've exemplified just where the happy medium between being a figure of authority and a good friend really lies. Thanks.
  - to the rest of you, I leave only my memory and a few bad debts.
- I, ANTHONY BLAIR FULLER, being soundly insane and a bit surprised that you fools actually let me out of this cell, will the following:
  - to Logan Mein, providing he makes it, the ability to admit he is wrong and maybe have the world revolve around someone else for once.
  - to Chrissy, my ability to deal with Logan.
- to Buford T. Pusser, I leave my room and the hope that he will maintain it as well as I did, heh-heh-heh!
- to J.J. Hoppin', a Student Body Presidency of realness, not some fake kiss-ss regime.
- to Chase Bop only the "taste" valley girls (there are some).

- to Fitzpindick and Al, the realization that everybody, and I mean everybody who talks about posers is actually one himself.
- to Jess and WRT I leave a friendship that will always be.
- to Dunn I leave all the greens Humbolts has to offer.
- and finally to Tim Mailliard I leave the ability to run when he finally goes out into the real world and expects everybody to listen to his nonsense, have a nice four years.
- Bye. ha-ha-ha Later ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha . . . GOOD RIDDANCE!
- I, DAN KASLOW, leave the following:
- to the Scraber, I will you my fourth period U.S.H. study sessions. Also I will you my mirror and my room at T-16. I will you luck and prosperity next year. Please make it we did it all. Bye.
- to C.D.A., I will you the same but not the mirror.
- to Noah, I will you my green plaid blanket. You're one (Timshel).
- to Jurgy, I will you luck as Student Body President.
- —to Wells, Bruins lose and don't breakdown:  $H_{12}C_{16}O_{32}$  (sugar) is not happening. Stay west.
- to Cutie, kick as in soccer and pass the ball. You're a good kid.
- to Greg P., I will you my roommate.
- to M.M./C.A., stay out of trouble with the girls in your room.
- to Montay, your brains are large, your control is not. Definitely not a bad lad.
- to A. Smith, I suggest you try Manhattan. You belong. Great volleyball and fun.
- to L.H., you have too much potential. Use it for your OWN good not homesake. My feelings remain.
- to W.B., good luck at Andover and better luck in the future. I know you.
- to Alan J., I will you my go-go's T-shirt.
- to Amper, stay in S.B. (you know it's the best.)
- to P.W., I will you a slower truck, positive attitude, and good times to remember.
- to Marlow, I will you the ability to speak clear English (not Malibuan). Enter some surf contests in Nebraska.
- and to my friend Daniel Joseph Butterfield (Herman) I will you complete success, happiness, and our invaluable friendship. You made me see things from a beautiful perspective. God bless.
- I, RAY McFARLAND, will the following:
  - to Cookie and Newelly I leave the hope that they will spend their last two years here learning and practicing some of the "skills" they will need for college. See ya later, nephews.
  - to J.J. I leave my "chair" and a "good luck" for next year.
  - to Squire Wells and Toggy Wolfenden, the ability to keep their mouths shut!!!, and to try and keep themselves off of Polk Street.
  - to Kevin Weinress, good luck with the team next year. I'll be back for the Cate game.
  - to Rat, keep hiding those Jessy Beans, and stay out of trouble, you little Rat!!!
  - to S.L., thanks, and no matter what changes you make, keep your friendships with the students. You'd be surprised how much it is appreciated!!!
- I, ARIA OLUMI, being of sound (?) mind (?) and body (?) will the following:
  - to Jim Jurgensen, I leave my best wishes and hopes in the year of leadership ahead of him. As the Editor-in-Chief of the Wigger Weekly, I appoint Him as next year's editor (if Hank is up for the paper).
  - to Toggy Wolfenden, I leave in memory all the good times we had and hope that they could be repeated more. Also the ability to crack better and better jokes, one after another.
  - to Squire Wells, I leave the ability to tell less B.S. stories, and I leave my "golden" ping pong paddle with Squire, hoping that he would win more ping pong tournaments with it.
  - to Toggy's and Squire's W<sup>2</sup> column, I leave the ability of writing good and funny columns.
  - to Jay Newell (my Hillsborough buddy), I leave my best wishes to have a good game of tennis with his future doubles partner.
  - to Mike Marlow, I leave my study board, hoping that it would be used more than once in a while.
  - to (Mr.) Chris Courage, I leave my best wishes and thank him for being a good understanding friend and listener.
  - to Hank, I leave my ability of not smoking cigarettes and drinking coffee, and best wishes with next year's Wigger Weekly. And I leave my leaping forehand with him, hoping my tennis game would improve (someday).

- to Mr. Robbins, I leave my computer programs (ha! ha!) and best wishes with the future seniors and their college applications.
- —and finally to all the upcoming students, I wish that they would have the same success as I did at Dunn.
- I, PHIL SAMUELSON, being of unsound mind and body, leave the following things:
  - to Lorenzo, I leave several bruises and many mornings of waking up to the Dead.
  - to Kirk and the rest of the "smoking crew", I leave big D's and my smoking permission.
  - to Pat McMichael, Jim Whittaker and myself, I leave the ultimate object of desire: the James Alexander Guy Patrick Chambers Ford Memorial Hanger.
  - to Terry McAdams (one of the last Grateful Dead listeners left) I will the ability to stick it out another year and finish successfully.
  - to Kevin, Jurgy and Chase I leave Ted with the knowledge that he will be put to good use.
  - to Alan Jackson, I leave several warts due to the infamous night he slept with a toad.
  - to Davis I leave the hope that he will someday give up his carousing and other unmentionable activities and learn to take life seriously.
  - I would like to thank Mr. Loy for being a fantastic headmaster and a genuinely compassionate person. His positive attitude made this year a good one.
  - finally, to Woody, Jess, Jurgy, Joel and the rest of the faculty, I wish the best of luck in future years. Your friendship is greatly valued.
- I, DREW SPARLIN, leave the following:
  - to my J.O.D. I leave my study board.
  - to Wally, he still gets his parking place if he keeps up the tradition and to those who can join him.
  - to my neighbors I leave responsibility and a good next year.
  - to Erik, I leave the ROC puller.
  - and to those I've spent many a late night with, play the game smart and learn from the loser.
  - Adios Amigos L.M., E.P., L.U., A.S., S.H., M.D., C.A.
- I, JIMBO WHITTAKER, being of a lost voice and an unstable mind, do hereby release the following items and knowledge:
  - to all the underclassmen who had the misfortune of ending up as waiters, I leave you the thought of not having to do it again, unless you're in the same fun and crazy character as Amper and Weinress!
  - to Jamie Drizin, I leave you these words of wisdom: "They'll always know you're from Las Vagas!"
  - to Fontana, I leave my glorious ashtray collection. I hope you can find it when you need it!
  - to Lester, I leave a box of hangover pills and this piece of knowledge: "One cannot drink and not feel its side effects."
  - to Pat McMichael: Phil Samuelson and I leave you our prize possession: "The James Alexander Guy Patrick Chambers Ford Memorial Hanger."
  - to Rat, I leave this thought: "When a lacrosse ball is coming at you, doing somewhere between eighty and ninety miles per hour and you're standing there in the net, there are only four things you can do: hold your stick up, grit your teeth, close your eyes, and "PRAY LIKE
  - to Jimmy and John (J<sup>2</sup>), I leave all my Orville and Orville utensils from our after study hall munch outs!
  - to my nephew, I leave a good knee shot, a bruise in the mornings, and many packs of Winstons!
  - to Alan Jackson, I leave the hope of not having to take up to a frog in the mornings.
  - to Matt Smith, I leave the dreaded responsibility of the VTR Room and Hank!
  - to Goren, Page, and Davis, I leave a pair of stilts with the hopes that you three will someday play for the Lakers!
  - to Doyle, I leave all the clove butts that he can find in SR-2 and a new version of "Close Encounters of the Third Kind"!
  - to Yellin I leave you this encouraging thought: "They're gonna get ya"!
  - to Woody, Jessy, Joel and Mr. Englert, I give you the courage of making it through the rest of your years at Dunn.
  - to Ralph, Yates, Doc, and Pete (the incredible 4) I leave you a snicker and a laugh with some unmentionable thoughts.
  - to Mr. Loy, I leave my memories for you to bring up in the future.
